

PRIVACY POLITICS OF “DIFFERENT & EQUAL” ORGANIZATION (D&E)

1. General information for D&E

"Different and Equal" (D&E) is a nonprofit organization (NGO) created in May 2004 and provides preventive, protective and reintegration services for victims of trafficking, victims of violence and vulnerable groups.

The planning and implementation of the activities of the "Different and Equal" organization are guided and met by the lines of strategies and national action plans for the fight against human trafficking and the fight against gender-based violence and domestic violence as well as the obligations of the organization as a member of the National Referral Mechanism for victims of trafficking.

Vision: We believe in a society without trafficking, exploitation, abuse or discrimination where everyone's rights are respected and they are free to pursue opportunities equally

Mission: D&E is a nonprofit organization dedicated to providing high quality reintegration services for victims of trafficking, exploitation and abuse, and to improving the legal, institutional and social context to prevent and counter these violations of human rights.

Activities and services provided by D&E:

- Residential services for victims of trafficking;
- Community services for victims of trafficking;
- Training inside of Albania for NGO-s who provide services for this target-group, state institutions, businesses, religious institutions, media, students, etc;
- Training outside of Albania for service providers, students, etc;
- Training for D&E staff;
- Income generation activities;
- Studies / Research;
- Advocacy;
- Support for policy makers;
- Prevention, raising awareness, empowering vulnerable groups

2. Information gathered by visitors and the security policies

D&E does not collect personal information for the visitors of our website, if the visitor does not want to share this information with us.

Sharing or giving information voluntarily through our website or through D&E's contacts means that you have given your permission to use this information for the stated purpose and in the function of the D&E's overall mission.

For any data you sent or shared with us, with any means of communication, D & E respects your right of privacy and personal data protection in accordance with the legal standards foreseen by the Law no. 9887, dated 10.03.2008, "On the Protection of Personal Data".

D&E automatically processes and keeps the name of the field from where you have access to the Internet, the date and time when you visit our website; the web site address (including the google search page or referral page) from which you visited our site. D&E uses the gathered information to count the visitors of our site and to help us making our site more useful to visitors like you.

3. Obligation to preserve confidentiality

D&E and all its staff, processors and third parties contracted by D & E who have access to the data received from you or those who knew the processed data while practicing their functions, are obliged to maintain confidentiality and reliability even after finishing the function. These data shall not be disclosed except the cases foreseen by the law.

4. D&E contacts

“Different & Equal” Organization

Tel: +355 (4) 222 18 92

E-mail: different&equal@icc-al.org

Adresa:

Rr. Milto Tutulani, P. Alb-Milenium, Shk.6, Ap. 30-34, Tirana, Albania

Note: For sending your message you can contact the section: “Contact Us”.

5. The right of the access, refusal of consent and the correction of data.

If not provided in advance, you have the right to ask for information about the purpose and destination of the information sent by you and you are always entitled to access the data and the information sent to D&E. At any time you have the right to refuse providing the information or even to request for its correction.

For any changes or updates of the privacy policies you will be informed through our internet web page, information that will be found published in “Privacy Policies” section.